

K-LOVE has encouraged, inspired, and uplifted many people in the areas it is heard. K-LOVE delivers a positive message for people of all ages. In this time of "entertainment", Uplifting is far and few. To displace this service that is totally paid for by listeners, would be tragic. Only God knows the impact it would have on the public. I would hope it would not be so drastic as when prayer was removed from the schools.